General Sheridan ought to be read out of the Demogratic party. It is evident he has not posted himself in relation to the wishes of the men who controlled the Chi-Antictam, he is following up the enemy and reaping the full fruits of his first brilliant victory. He has overtaken Early at Fisher's Hill, in the vicinity of Strasburg, and administered another severe chastisement to the rebel forces under that eminent rebel, capturing 16 guns and tak ing many prisoners. Sheridan does not seem to be much in favor of a cessation of hostilities, nor do the boys in blue favor at armistice. - The Shenandoah Valley, which has been not inaptly termed the "Valley of Humiliation" for our forces, render to General Grant in his designs upon Richmond, cannot now be fully estimated. Under all the circumstances and in view of the splendid victories recently achieved everywhere by our gallant armin history to follow the advice of the peace There is probably some truth in the re-

A correspondent of the Philadelpia Press in the Army of the Potomae says the news of McClollan's nomination created no enthusiasm among the soldiers, and only a few officers in some of the New York regiments evinced any satisfaction. The robels, on the other hand, who were very anxious to known what the Chicago Convention was doing, when they learned the results of their deliberations, sprang suddenly upon their works, almost along their entire line of twelve miles, and gave three cheers for McClellan. Our men were perfectly thunderstruck, but in a moment or two also sprang upon their works and gave three cheers for Lincoln. While the cheering was going on, no fir of any kind was done; each side was too much engaged cheering their favorite Thic affair has made thousands of votes for Mr. Lincoln.

FROM THE UPPER POTOMAC.

New York, Sept. 24 .- It has been asertained that Early's shattered forces, or what is left of them, have abandoned the road to Staunton and are retreating in the direction of Culpepper and Gordons-ville directly towards Richmond, leaving the road to Lynchburg unobstructed, while Lee is unable to spare another army of sufficient strength to oppose the progress of the victorious Sheridan.

The news from Sheridan's army this afternoon has created a wild excilement throughout the city. The capture of Fisher's Hill, that great stronghold and key to with the addition of 16 cannon and sever al thousand prisoners to the trobies alidan is regarded hereus conclusive evidence of the complete destruction of the rebel army in the valley, and the opening of the whole route to Lynchburg, while necessity must bring about the speedy evacuation of Richmond, or the capture of the rebel capital and its whole army.

There are in progressuther movements, all progress.

THE NEW YORK Herald says Pennsylvania is not in a promising condition for the Copperheads, and if it goes for the Union in October, that will decide the Presidential question. In this emergency it advises Schent-per-Schent Belmont, who is in the interest of Louis Napoleon, to go in to the Keystone State with his money This might relieve Belmont of a good deal of his recent gains, but it would not save the Copperhead cause. Pennsylvania is sure to give a sweeping majority for the Union in October, as will also Ohio and Indiana. The patriotism of the people is greater than the lower of money, and iis pure as the Rathschild Democracy is cor-

With General McClollan was Superinendent of the Ohio & Missi-sippi railroad he issued an order to the following effect That if a passenger got into the cars without a ticket, and refused to pay the additional fee, or to pay his face altogether, the conductor should stop the train, back up to the stational which the passenger was received, and put him off. This order was published in the papers at the time, and create I no little amusement among railroad men. McClellau finally saw the point and revoked it.

FREMONT'S NEW YORK ORGAN WHEELS INTO LINE .- The New Nation. the paper that was established in New York specially to advocate Fremont for the Presidency. nas come out for Lincoln. In a published note the editor says:

"Although Mr. Lincoln is far from beng the candidate of my choice, between him and McClellan no loyal man can hesiinte; The New Nation will not hesitate: t repudintes all sorts of bargains, and will not aid them, if either utar off or near, di rectly or indirectly, but it will always be the vanguard of loyal patriots for liberty against slavery. We have often reproach ed Lincoln with want of dignity as evinced in his jokes, but Fremont's jokes are worse, for the are played at the expense of honesty."

THE RICHMOND Examiner says of the Chicago Convention and its nominations: So this proud Democracy, once, in its union with Southern men, the prideof the Republic and the hope of the world, for of a second time its noble vocation, and stooped to a pitiful compromise. Selectng a man who had soleminly pledged him--cli in favor of war, and who was weak enough to promise to be whatever the parry might desire him to be, they coupled his puppet of theirs with an avowed peace man, hoping thus to offend none, and conciliate all. Like all half measures, this policy is sure to fail, and will pay only ino the hands of Lincoln.

Good Joke on the Minnesotians .- I as been observed of late that a great many Minnesorians have arrived on the rains in this city, bound for the Last .the other morning when an unusual number were getting off the train, at the lepat, a good joke was perpetrated by an mnibus driver. The drivers were cryng: "Here's bus for Newhall House, hero's hus for Chicago care, Detroit and Milwaukeo boat, &c., &c., when a lusty voice shouted: "Here's your bus for Minnesotians what's going to Canada." It is said the driver filled up right away .- Wisconvin.

I chose to let those more distinguished for literary talont keep you "up" in our movements and gyrations, but found a stray GAZETTE that fortuitously came within my reach, I discovered that the 33d was either unknown to its readers, or in danger of being forgotten. We still live, and a brief retrepast may not be totally void of interest. On the 2d day of February last, our reg-

and again up the river's bank in fine style, only to be sweet away by the iron storm hurled upon him by our gun-bonis and musketry. He soon fled in confusion, leaving a large number of killed and wounded; the commanding general among them. We reached Grand Ecorethe 15th, where we found Bank's army entrenching and the whole army on the night of the 20th set out for Alexandria; our division covering the retreat. On the 21th we repulsed the enemy with great slaughter at Cloutierville, and again at Yellow Bayou, May 18th. We at length reached the Mississippi, and Banks being beyond jeopardy, we were permitted to return to Vicksburg thence to Memphis, where we arrived May 31st, June the 22d, we were again upon the war path toward Tupolo Mississippi, to retrive if possible the losses attending upon the disastrious defeat of Sturgis in that locality on the 10th. We first encountered Forest, eighteen thousand strong, on the 13th of July, while moving Pontotoe to Tupelo, and repulsed him. The following day he attacked us in our position at Tupelo, and again upon the 15th but was totally routed with a loss of three thousand men, while ours could not have exceeded three hundred and fifty. The 33d was always in the front line and suffered severely; losing forty-two during the expedition. We returned to Memphis July 22d, and ten days after were ordered to St Charles on White River, which place we garrisoned until the 2d inst, when we were ordered here, though for what purpose is a question yet to be solved. It is very sickly here, and malignant fevers abound, so that the mortality among soldiers is great. The 33d cannot now muster four hundred men for duty, and will soon be sorely depleted if it remains here. We have abandoned all hope of ever being returned to our corps in Sherman's command, and the prospect is a gloomy one, for the conduct of affairs in this de partment, under the auspices of Steel, seems to give satisfaction to no one but the rebels, and murmurings loud and deep are to be heard on every hand from those who the oldest settlers of Oshkosh, having lofavor the pursuit of a vigorous policy. In parting from them, we feel that our regiment has sustained a "fulling off," and the organizatious to which they are respectively assigned have made valuable acquaitions. St. Charles, Ark. Sept. 13th 1864.

On the 10th we came here, landing about 9 o'clock at night, and camped in side of some pretty good works which our folks had built and left, and here we are still and know about as much how long we shall stay as you do. This was quite a place once, but now has but one family and two or three houses, the balance hav ing played out in the same way that millions of property has gone in the track of the army. You at the North do not know anything about war and I hope never will by experience. - You can have no idea of the desolation that is in the track of an army, especially when it lives on the country in its progress. No one can form an idea of the amount that it takes to support the soldiers in the field. A few days ago I had charge of a party to load a boat with rations. We put on 70,000 rations, or rations for 7000 men for ten days-80 bbls. flour, 825 boxes hard bread, (50 lbs. each) 140 bbls pork, 65 casks bacon, besides augar, rice, coffee, salt, vinegar, soap, candles &c. What a pile to feed us all. No wonder that an army cannot go through an enemy's country and supply itself by its own wagon train. Its own weight would break it down. Many things along the river look better than before Canby's arrival. Speculation and stealing has been the order and contraband trade has been plenty. I had almost feared that corruption and rottenness had so thoroughly infected the army and people that the country was not worth saring and that we too, were going to be blotted out as a land mark for coming time. But after all I have an abiding faith that we as a nation have a work yet to do: all this blood has not been in vain. I wish the infernal copperhends had the honesty or courage to join the rebel army, but they have neither. McClellan stock is low in the 29th, though I think he will get more votes than any other man the rebcls could have nominated. If our army is successful he will get but few votes; if Grant should be defeated he would receive many more. From present appearances I set his vote in the regiment at about

General Sheridan ought to be read out of the Democratic party. There cannot be much left of Early's forces after these disastrous defeats, and the great aid Sheridan's successes will render to General Grant in his designs upon Richmond, cannot now be fully estimated. There is probably some truth in the report that the State authorities of Georgia are negotiating with General Sherman for the return of that State to its allegianco. Governor Brown has never been on good terms with the Confederate authorities, and has always been charged with cherisha secret love for the old flag.

The New York World still reiterates its rumors of peace propositions. Its Washington correspondent expresses his belief hands of a party in that city, to be presented to President Lincoln.

Charleston advices state that the firing still continued. General Beauregard refused to allow General Foster to send supplies to the Union prisoners in Georgia. Robert C. Winthrop, who in Faneuil Hall, Boston, in 1848, claimed the authorship of the Wilmot Proviso, and indorsed its principles, has been nominated by the copperheads of Massachusetts an elector at large for the State.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Philadelpia Press in the Army of the Potomac says the news of McClellan's nomination created no enthusiasm among the soldiers, and only a few officers in some of the New York regiments evinced any satisfaction. The rebels, on the other hand, who were very anxious to known what the Chicago Convention was doing, when they learned the results of their deliberations, sprang suddenly upon their works, almost along their entire line of twelve miles, and gave three cheers for McClellan. Our men were perfectly thunderstruck, but in a moment or two also sprang upon their works and gave three cheers for Lincoln. While the cheering was going on, no firof any kind was done; each side was too much engaged cheering their favorite. This affair has made thousands of votes for Mr. Lincoln.

Letter from the 33d Regiment.

BROWNVILLE, ARE, Sept. 12, 1864. Editors Gazette :- 'Tis so long since I have held any communication with you, that now "methinks we meet as friends cago Convention. Unlike McCiellan at that had forgot to speak." I chose to let those more distinguished for literary talent keep you "up" in our movements to grace once more, a large circle of society liant victory. He has overtaken Early and gyrations, but found a stray Gazette of which he is a shining light. Wherevethat fortuitously came within my reach, I discovered that the 33d was either unchastisement to the rebel forces under that known to its readers, or in danger of being forgotten. We still live, and a brief retrospect of our career during the six months On the 2d day of February last, our regiment, then a part of the 1st Brig. 4th Div. which has been not inaptly termed the 19th A. C., left the Big Black for Meridian, Miss., which was reached in the incredible time of cloven days distance, one hundred and fifty miles, and with a heavy force of the enemy's cavalry in our front and upon either flank. But this was but the foreshadowing of other brilliant achievements to be planned and executed by the fertile oracular genius of Sherman. In his own language "the experiment was a success," and after the destruction of many miles of railroad and rolling stock, and consuming a large share of the subsistence of the country, we loisurly retired upon Vickssneak Chicago Convention, and give the burg, and here but a short rest awaited uing marches of the war.

Cloutierville, and again at Yellow Bayou, May 18th. We at length reached the Mississippi, and Banks being beyond jeopardy, we were permitted to return to Vicksburg thence to Memphis, where we arrived May 31st, June the 22d, we were again upon the war path toward Tupolo Mississippi, to retrive if possible the losses attending upon the disastrious defeat of Sturgis in that locality on the 10th. We first encountered Forest, eighteen thousand strong, on the 13th of July, while moving Pontotoc to Tupelo, and repulsed him. The following day he attacked us in our position at Tupelo, and again upon the loth but was totally routed with a loss of three thousand men, while ours could not have exceeded three hundred and fifty. The 33d was always in the front line and suffered severely; losing forty-two during the expedition. We returned to Memphis July 22d, and ton days after were ordered to St Charles on White River, which place we garrisoned until the 2d inst, when we were ordered here, though for what purpose is a question yet to be solved. It is very sickly here, and malignant fevers abound, so that the mortality among soldiers is great. The 33d cannot now muster four hundred men for duty, and will soon be sorely depleted if it remains here.

We have abandoned all hope of ever being returned to our corps in Sherman's command, and the prospect is a gloomy one, for the conduct of affairs in this de partment, under the auspices of Steel, seems to give satisfaction to no one but the rebels, and murmurings loud and deep are to be heard on every hand from those who favor the pursuit of a vigorous policy. Our regiment is occasionally favored by an honorable promotion, and none have given more general satisfaction, nor been more Farr and Hoyt, of Company "F."-the first to a 2d Lieutenancy in Comra w "H," 5th Wis. THE WAR FOR THE UNION Good News from Sheridan

He Fights Early at Fisher's Hill

BULLY FOR SHERIDAN!

OFFICIAL BULLETIN.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 .- To Major Gen.

Dix:-The following telegram, announcing another victory of Sheridan, is just re-

HARPER'S FERRY, Sept. 23.—Hon. E. M Stanton: -Sheridan has again beaten Early at Fisher's Hill, capturing 16 guns ard many prisoners. This is, in all probabil. ty, the finale of Early.

J. D. STEVENSON,

Brigadier General. E. M. Stanton, See'y of War.

FROM THE UPPER POTOMAC.

New York, Sept. 24.—It has been as-certained that Early's shattered forces, or what is left of them, have abandoned the road to Staunton and are retreating in the direction of Culpepper and Gordons-ville directly towards Richmond, leaving the road to Lynchburg unobstructed, while Lee is upable to spare another army of sufficient strength to oppose the progress of the victorious Sheridan.
The news from Sheridan's army this afternoon has created a wild excitement throughout the city. The capture of Fisher's Hill, that great stronghold and key to the upper part of the Shenandoah Valley with the addition of 16 cannon and sever al thousand prisoners to the trobies already won by the victorious army of Sheridan is regarded hereas conclusive evidence of the complete destruction of the robel army in the ralley, and the opening of the whole route to Lynchburg, while necessity must bring about the speedy evacuation of Richmond, or the capture of the rebel eapital and its whole army.

There are in progressother movements not proper to be disclosed which would tend to render this resultine vitably.

The New York Herald says Pennsylvania is not in a promising condition for the Copperheads, and if it goes for the Union in October, that will decide the Presidential question. In this emergency it advises Schent-per-Schent Belmont, who is in the interest of Louis Napoleon, to go in to the Keystone State with his money. This might relieve Belmont of a good deal of his recent gains, but it would not save the Copperhead cause. Pennsylvania is sure to give a sweeping majority for the PRESID'NT LINCOLN, Union in October, as will also Ohio and Intions. The natrictism of the accords is greater than the power of money, and i as pure as the Rothschild Democracy is corrupt.

When General McClollan was Superin tendent of the Ohio & Mississippi railroad he issued an order to the following effect: That if a passenger got into the cars with out a ticket, and refused to pay the additional fee, or to pay his fare altogether. the conductor should stop the train, back up to the station at which the passenger was eccived, and put him off. This order was published in the papers at the time, and created no little amusement among railroad men. McClellan finally saw the point and revoked it.

FREMONT'S NEW YORK ORGAN WHEELS INTO LINE. - The New Nation, the pape that was established in New York special ly to advocate Fremont for the Presidency has come out for Lincoln. In a publish ed note the editor says:

"Although Mr. Lincoln is far from being the candidate of my choice, between him and McCiellan no loyal man can hesitate: The New Nation will not hesitate: t repudiates all sorts of bargoius, and will not aid them, if either afar off or near, directly or indirectly, but it will always be he vanguard of loyal patriots for liberty against slavery. We haveoften reproached Lincoln with want of dignity as evinced in his jokes, but Fremont's jokes are worse, for the are played at the expense of honesty."

THE RICHMOND Examiner says of the Chicago Convention and its nominations: So this proud Democracy, once, in its union with Southern men, the pride of the Republic and the hope of the world, for got a second time its noble vocation, and stooped to a pitiful compromise. Selecting a man who had solemnly pledged him self in favor of war, and who was weak enough to promise to be whatever the parry might desire him to be, they coupled this puppet of theirs with an avowed peace man, hoping thus to offend none, and con-clinteall. Like all half measures, this policy is sure to fail, and will pay only into the hands of Liccoln.

Good Joke on the Minnesotians.—It has been observed of late that a great many Minnesotiens have arrived on the rains in this city, bound for the East .the other morning when an unusual number were getting off the train, at the lepot, a good joke was perpetrated by an mnibus driver. The drivers were cryng: "Here's bus for Newball House, nore's bus for Chicogo cars, Detroit and Milwaukce boat, &c., &c., when a lusty voice shouted: "Here's your hus for Minnesotians what's going to Canada." It is said the driver filled up right away. Wisionsin.

MENICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT.

The parties in St. Louis and Cincinnati, who have been Counterfeiting the Mustang Liniment under pretense of proprietorship, have been thoroughly estoped by the Courts. To guard against further imposition, I have procured from the United States Treasury, a private steel plate revenue stamp, which is placed over the top of each hortlo. Each stamp bears the fac simile of my Signature, and without which the article is a Counterfeit, dangerous and worthless imitation. Examine every bottle. This Limment has been in use and growing in favor for many years. There hardly exists a hamlet on the habitable Globe that does not contain evidence of its wonderful effects. It is the best emolicat in the world. With its present improved ingredients, its effects upon man and beast are perfectly remarkable. That was well and nobly spoken. We ask them now to contrast this manly and patriotic utterance with the cowardly and skulking policy of the peace speaks, assembled in national convention, at Chicago, on the 29th of August. Do the war Democrats of Wisconsin adhere to the resolution of a year ago, or has the lapse of a twelvementh made them converts to the bald statement of the Chicago platform, that the war for the Union has been a fail! ure? Do they now see any just cause for a "cessation of hostilities?" LETTER FROM MILWAUKEE.

Milwauxee, Sept. 22, 1864. words from this city, would be interesting they have erred, and reads them a lesson to the many readers of your paper, in re. for the future. "At such a critical mogard to the vigorous steps about to be tab. on in this city and vicinity, for the approaching Congressional campaign, Iknow of nothing more inspiring than the procoodings of the grand meeting held here last evening in honor of the arrival of our future Congressman, Hon, -Halbert E.

As it was announced-a few days previously, that the "Hero of Port Hudson' would arrive here, the patriotic people thought it nothing more than their duty to make preparations for his reception. In nesday evening, and that Gen. Paine would be present.

Copperhead Complaints.

[For the Janesville Garetto.] The recent Union triumph at the polls, like the glorious Union victories obtained | Fauth & Bosto by Sherman, Farragut and Sheridan, has carried dismay into the copperhead ranks. They continue to whistle, it is true, to keep their courage up, but it is evident that they feel badly. The result of the Maine election hurts them terribly. They had calculated differently for that meridian; but unfortunately it turned out that Slauglidaweoutf directly opposite Hyatt House, their political almanao maker had dea great trouble over the "down polls. What a pity! The Courier says, ative duty, at such a time as this." It is frankly admitted that the political pros-

peet for the future in Maine is majorially lessened. This prediction will prove true.

"Our. Democratic: friends in Maine

thought it as well to reserve their efforts for the November election." The Courier is unable to endorse this policy, calling it "dawdling and short-sighted," and claims, that by it "they have lost all." The Boston copperhead sheet Edilors Gazette:-Thinking that a few tells its . Maine friends wherein ment-as-this," - enys-the Courier, -" and with such an opportunity of rendering service every man should have been at his post, every dollar which was needed should have been cheerfully forthcoming." Had they done their duty, "a better hope for New England would have existed in the future." Alasl for the lack of dollars and voters! The copperheads may well complain.

Every day their prospects are "growing small by degrees, and beautifully less." The Union cause was never more brilliant The contest is narrowed down to this: Lincoln and the Union-McClellan and disunion. This is precisely what the political conflict now means.

After having played on the French.]

After having played on the Flano of Messus. Knabo & Co., it is impossible not to hear testimony to their qualities, which have acquired for them the eminent reputation which they enjoy. The Planos of their manufacture, on which I have played, are exceedingly remarkable for their qualities. The bass is powerful without harshne-s, and the upper notes sweet, clear and harmonicously mellow, (chrystaline,) and I do not hesitate to express in regard to these instruments my entire satisfaction, and to declare that they are equal if not superior to the best manufactured in Europe or this country by the most celebrated makers.

Editors Gazette:-Thinking that a few to the many readers of your paper, in regard to the vigorous steps about to be telon in this city and vicinity, for the approaching Congressional campaign, Iknow of nothing more inspiring than the procoedings of the grand meeting held here last evening in honor of the arrival of our future Congressman, Hon, Halbert E.

As it was appounced a few days previously, that the "Hero of Port Hudson' would arrive here, the patriotic people thought it nothing more than their duty to make preparations for his reception. In accordance with the prevailing desire, it was announced that there would be a meeting at the Academy of Music on Wednesday evening, and that Gen. Paine would be present.

Gres were kindled around the Academy, the band was in attendence and discoursed all the popular airs of the day, the constant roar of cannon and the shouts of the vast multitudes, rent the air for miles around. Copperhead Complaints. [For the Janeaville, Gazette.] The recent Union triumph at the polls, like the glorious Union victories obtained by Sherman, Farragut and Sheridan, has carried dismay into the copperhead ranks. They continue to whistle, it is true, to keep their convage up, but it is evident that they feel badly. The result of the Maine election hurts them terribly. They had calculated differently for that meridian; but unfortunately it turned out that their political almanae maker had decoived them. They are really in of a recent date says, "the fault is polls. The copperheads may well complain. Every day their prospects, are, "growing small by degrees, and beautifully less. The Union cause was never more brillian and promising than now. The work goes bravely on. Let all true Union men be faithful, and a glorious victory is certain. The contest is narrowed down to this Lincoln and the Union-McClellan and disunion. This is precisely what the political conflict now means.

DIARRHŒA AND DYSENTERY.

We have examined a great number of letters from some of the most prominent citizens of Cincinnati and Covington, etc., speaking in the highest terms of Dr. Strickland's Anti-Cholers Mixture for the cure of diarrhose and dysentery. The letters are toollong to publish. Mr. Woods, of Covington, says he was pronounced incurable by the best doctors in Cincinnati, and one bottle of Dr. Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture effected a permanent cure after suffering for months with the worst form of diarrhose and dreen

Another says he was discharged from the United States service after suffering in the hespital for eight months as incurable, and as a last resource "tried Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture. He got well directly and has now entered the army again in good boolth. One man writes he has cured seven or eight very bad cases of diarrhees and discentery in the barracks he was in with one bettle of this valuable medicine. In fact we could fill half our paper, with similar Items from these istters. Why does not our government secure this valuable preparation? Our army ought to be supplied with it. It is but a short time since one of our men lay in a very low] condition at one of our Clackmati Hospitals, his wife was sont for. The dectors considered his case an hopeless case. She however, gave him Etrickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture. and in three weeks he was able to return home with his wife to New Richmond, O. All these cases right at home speak for themselves. We hope all the soldiers will put a bottlo of it in their knamacks. It may ante them, or some of their comrades. It is for, sie by Dr. a Sin:—I have been afflicted many years with sovers prostrating cramps in my limbs, cold feet and hands, and a general disordered system. Physicians and medicins failed to relieve me. Some friends in New York, who were using Plantation Bitters, prevailed upon me to try them. I commoned with a small wine glassfull after dinner. Feeling better by degrees, in a few days I was astonished to find the coldeness and cramps had entirely left me, and I could sleep the night through, which I had not done for years. I feel like another being. My appetite and strongth have also greatly improved by the use of the Plantation Bitters.

Jacket RED STOMACH BITTERS. STOMACH BITTERS. STOMACH BITTERS

The proprietors of this justify esteemed and well-known brand of Stomach Bitters, do not deem if the cessary, in order to give their poods a fections, or even an enhanced value, to take a fiting at all other Bitters, and prochim in small capitals that they are worthless. Our Bitters do not need this, as we place them before the public on their medis, and invito your careful attention to the goods we show our brand inper, knowing as we do go, that our reputation is at stake. The name, Red Jacket, is taken from the original compound by the native child of the forrest, and with the addition of a few herbs by Dr. Chapin, made more agreeable to the state, they have now a peculiarly healthy, soothing and recuperative influence, especially for the patient rising from the bed of sickness, loss of apportice, distress after earling, dizziness, and all discusses arising from Torpic Liver or Indigestion.

They are a sure cure for dyspendia.

Peoples' Edition of Parton's Gen. Butler in New Orleans.

One Volume, Octave, Paper, Price 75c With the view of meeting the extensive popular del mand I r this remarkable book, this edition has been prepared. The page and type are similar to those or therper's Magazine. Some of the less important documents are omitted, and its some instinces the account has been condensed, yet inversions to intertere with has been condensed, yet hever so as to interiers with the interest or completeness of the story.

Unquestionably this book stands pre-eminent in interest among all yet occasioned by the robellion. It is subject and author combine to render it incluating. Fifther editions have been called for as fast as they could be pinted. It has been most warmly commended by the loyal press of the country, and acarely less so by a portion at least of the English press, by whom it is newnowledged to be a complete vindication of don. Butter from the malicious charges which envy and hatted have brought against him.

It contains an anendotal sketch of Gen. Butter-brilliant and remarkable career at the bir of Massechusetts; a history of the secret movements in the charleston Convention; conversations between Gen Butter and the badding seces-ioniss at Washington in becomber, 1880; the real plans of the Indians; Gen. Butter invited to join them; his advice to Buchanan; Bather in Field to join them; his advice to Buchanaus nis efforts in preparing Massachusetts for war; the celebrated march, via. Annapolis, to Washington; collision with Gen Scott; his conso at Fortiess Monroe, the history of the contracts his contracts. Day Express leaves Oregon for Chicago, the history of the contrabunds; his active to the Administration how to take Richmond, the truth about the battle of Grant Bethel; the flatterss Expedite 1; the active test history of the New Orleans Expedition; the adactive of the General in getting to Ship Island; a full account of the tenging of the World of New Orleans; the language of the treeps in the city, a could be received. ing of the troops in the city; a complete narrative of succeeding events, with a large number of highly interesting narratives and anecdotes never belong put lished; the recall of then Butter, and the explanation given of it by the Government; his pre-ent opinion-upon the great issues before us. upon the great issues before us.

Posples' Edition of Parton's Gen. Butler in New Orleans.

MICHIGAN CENTRAL RAIL With the view of meeting the extensive popular department of this remarkable book, this collidor has been prigared. The page one type are similar to those of Marger's Magazine. Some of the less important documents are omitted, and in some instances the account has been condensed, yet notes as as to interfere with the interfered or consipieatoes of the story.

Unquestionably this book stands pre-eminent in interest among all yet decasioned by the roboliton. Its abject and author condition to reader it factionating, fifteen editions have been called for as fast as they could be planted. It has been most warning commenced by the loyal press of the country, and scarcely 1 as so by a portion at least of the English press, by whom it is acknowledged to be a complete vindication of some stafer from the medicious charges which envy and hadred have brought against him.

It contains an anecotal aligned of Gen. Entity beliant and romarkable curear at the bar of Mussichnetts; a bistory of the accret movements in the Charleston Convention; conversations between Gen. But or and the bending secent-solding at Washington in December, 1860; the rent plans of this inflore; the Estension of the miniors, (up.

Butler invited to join them; his advice to Buchanno; his efforts in preparing Mussichnets for war; the esternated march, via. Ananyolia, to Washington; collision with Gen. Scott; his course at Fortres Morroe; the listory of the contrabunts; his advise to the Administration how to take Richmond, the truth about the battle of Gen Richtle; the trateras Expedition; the advictory of the concern in getting to Ship Island; a fall account of the cupture of New Deleans; the lenging narratives and encolotes in ver before published; the recall of One. Butter, and the explanation in large type, grown, 8vo., cloth, 662 pages, price $2.50. People's lations, 8vo. pager, 75 cents. German Edition $1. Sent by mail on receipt of price.
